“Don’t just listen to God’s Word. You must do what it says.”
James 1:22 NLT

Ask your superkid to name the chapter and verse of the Memory Verse above.

Hearing is easier than doing:
If we don’t do God’s Word, we don’t see who we really are. James 1:23-24
Obedience is an important ingredient. James 1:22
Consistent effort always pays off with our heavenly Father! Hebrews 11:6

Family Review Questions:
1. Hearing is sometimes easier than doing. Share an example of God asking you to do something and you obeyed. How does reading God’s Word and obeying what He says affect your relationship with God?

2. When you practice being obedient to your parents, you are practicing being obedient to God’s voice. How can you practice obedience to your parents and God this week?

Tips for Parents:
This Dinnertime Devotional can be used at any meal, and is designed to reinforce the truths being taught at Superkid Academy.
Make sure you set the example by using your Bible, and read the verses out loud. (We use the New Living Translation with most of our lessons. But reading other translations can also be a great teaching opportunity.)
Take a few minutes and read any other scriptures listed, so you can reinforce the main theme of the lesson.
Let your questions guide the time. In other words, let your kids do most of the talking. We’ve provided questions here, but feel free to add your own, using examples from your lives. (Remember to avoid yes or no questions, since they do not foster conversation.)
